Why Private Instruction?

The guitar instruction program enables students to become competent musicians utilizing knowledge of music theory and a variety of playing techniques to explore various musical styles culminating in playing and leading music for the Lord. Students will be able to play solo and in combination with other musicians. Advanced instruction offered includes lead, tablature, improvisation, solo, blues, jazz, and Gospel styles.

Where & When

This year guitar instruction will be taught in weekly private lessons with a combined lesson with other students approximately once a month for group playing development. Private lessons will be ½ hour in length and will be offered during the school day, as well as after-school, including evening hours. This school-day option is for Cresset Christian Academy students only. The semesters will each end with a recital performance.

This approach to lesson format presents a well-formed experience for the guitar student with individual instruction combined with the opportunity to play music with other students in a guided, supportive environment.

The group offerings will be 1 hour in length to allow for individual attention to each student. This instruction format is optimal for developing future Christian Worship Leaders.

Private lessons will begin the week of August 22, 2011 and all lessons will be based on Cresset Christian Academy's school calendar; there will be at least 30 lessons. There will not be any make-up lessons.

Students must have their own instrument.
