---

Teaching Method

Strictly String; additional music as the student progresses.

Violin Cost

Rentals can be arranged through Music & Arts for approximately $25-$30 per month. The purchase of a violin often depends on the quality and size.

Where & When

All beginning students, grades K-adult, who have not taken violin lessons before will be required to take group beginner lessons. Beginning lessons will be given Thursdays after school from 3:30-4:45.

Students who have taken a minimum of 1 school year of violin lessons, either at Cresset or elsewhere, qualify for private one-on-one lessons. These lessons will be scheduled on a student-by-student basis and will begin the first full week of school or the week following registration.

Private lessons will begin the week of August 22, 2011 and all lessons will be based on Cresset Christian Academy's school calendar; there will be at least 30 lessons. There will not be any make-up lessons.

Come and watch your child learn to play skillfully while having fun!

About the Teacher

Mrs. Angela Cooper

- ◆ Graduated from Washington University in St. Louis
- ◆ Taught violin for over 12 years
- ◆ 20 Years experience playing violin

Commitment

We need a commitment from you to ensure a spot for your child. Send in the completed registration form with your commitment fee and activity fee OR the full year's tuition no later than August 19, 2011.

Parental commitment to assist with practice is strongly recommended. Violin rental information and resources will be provided. Supplies, including music, are an additional cost and are purchased by the teacher. These items need to be paid for in advance.
